

SOCIAL PROGRAM

Wednesday, August 10th

18:00-19:30 Opening ceremony by invitation of the Culture House, Hverfisgata 15 (Þjóðmenningarhús). Please look at the map of Reykjavík for the location in the city center of Reykjavík. No transfer is organized.

Speakers:

Atli Þór Ólason, congress president

Sigurbjörn Sveinsson, chairman of the Icelandic Medical Association

Sverrir Tómasson, Medical Medieval Icelandic Manuscripts - short introduction

Friday, August 12th

08:00-22:00 Full day tour to Snæfellsnes peninsula, boat trip with lunch and dinner on our way back to Reykjavík. The Snæfellsnes peninsula is one of the most mysterious places in Iceland with a rich history. Along the way lectures on medical history will be given. This trip is supposed to give our participants an impression of the Icelandic landscape and the history that seems to be alive in every mountain.

Pick up at Congress hotels at 08:00

Saturday, August 13th

18:00-23:00 Tour to the Blue Lagoon and the congress closing dinner.

We will enjoy a peaceful and tranquil evening at the Blue Lagoon.

After a dip into the beautiful water in the light summer night of Iceland, dinner will be served in the restaurant overlooking the Lagoon.

Pick up at Congress hotels at 18:00